PERFORMANCE MEASURES AND GRADING

25% of Total Grade – Weekly Research Papers

Complete five (5) short research papers as described in the course schedule

20% of Total Grade – Two Exams:

There will be a total of 2 exams worth 10% each of your total grade. Exam question types will include multiple choice, true/false, definitions and short answer, and will cover readings, lectures and guest speaker presentations. Exams are not cumulative. Students missing an exam, will be required to make-up the exam at an agreed upon date. Exams not administered due to cancelled classes will automatically be rescheduled for the next regularly scheduled class meeting.
45% of Total Grade – Sales Presentation:

Deliver a mock sales presentation of your product or service, or solicit funding for your start-up. Students may present alone or as a team (3 students max per team). Presentations should be a minimum of 10 minutes. Student audience members will play the role of prospective buyers or a lender, venture capitalist, etc. Students should present a printed copy of their slides when they make their presentation (3 per page). Grading will be based on the following criteria:

- 50% Presentation content; using sales and marketing principles from the textbook, in-class Discussions, etc., your ability to be persuasive, handle objections and close the sale.
- 30% Presentation delivery and organization
- 20% Assessment of sales success, i.e., would we buy what you’re selling?

Extra points may be given for demonstrating creativity, brilliance and originality!

10% of Total Grade – Attendance and In-Class Participation

Based on class attendance, reading the assigned chapters, completing weekly research papers and participating in the open discussions during class time. Students are expected to attend all class meetings throughout the semester.

Extra Credit Opportunities:

You may earn up to 10 extra credit points for attending a local business networking event, workshop, etc. (at 5 points per meeting) to be added to your total exam scores. Following each meeting, you should submit an email me detailing which event you attended and the 2-3 lessons, new ideas, skills and or techniques you learned.

GRADING SCALE:

Final course grades will be calculated using the following criteria and weightings:

- Research Papers (5) 25
- Exams (2) 20%
- Sales Presentation 45
- Attendance & Participation 10
- Total 100%

A = 90-100, B = 80-89, C = 70-79, D = 60-69 and F = Below 60
An A+ may be earned for a cumulative score that exceeds 100%

ABSENCES AND ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

If for some reason a student is unable to attend class, he/she will be responsible for obtaining notes, assignments, and other relevant course information from their classmates. In the event of inclement weather during the semester, contact the University’s weather hotline at 277-7669. The recorded message will state whether or not classes have been cancelled for the day.
