Golden Nuggets: Wisdom Gained in 50 Years of Family Business Succession Planning by William Roberts and Korbett Roberts

June 25, 2015 • 5:30 p.m.
Embassy Suites Hotel • Cost: $75

William Roberts and Korbett Roberts of AUCTIONIS will share stories of their experiences with clients and their own company succession at a presentation by the Parker Center for Family Business at the UNM Anderson School of Management. This father and son team will detail the importance of making key decisions in family businesses and explain the importance of advisor succession in any family’s plan. With over 100 years of collective experience, AUCTIONIS has assisted families and business owners to protect and preserve their wealth and business assets for over 37 years.

To register online go to:
https://www.unmfund.org/fund/parker-center-for-family-business/

Under Step 1, enter in an “other amount” of $75.
Under the “add comments” section, note the payment is for the succession planning talk.
An email receipt will be sent with the entry of an email address.

Or Contact:
Sonja M. Romero, Event Coordinator
505.848.1800 ext. 1668 • sonjar@modrall.com